

WovenContent™ Category Subscriptions

Running fresh content is easier than ever! Get only the content that's relevant to your audience with category subscriptions.

Keeping your digital signage viewers engaged with your screens isn't easy. Having relevant, seasonal ready-to-air content is critical. With a WovenContent Category Subscription choose which categories are of interest to you for your demographics, from our fully curated library of content partner offerings. Choose from our most popular categories, or select a more focused and customized offering to suit your network needs. Updating your playlists and screens is easy once you've subscribed to your favorite categories - you can download as you go, or set up automated MRSS feeds so your content is delivered automatically as soon as it's available. Either way, Category Subscriptions are a win for your audience.
